DAY 05:

Sigiriya – Ayurvedic Spice Garden – Kandy – Temple of the Tooth – Botanical Gardens

Leave in the morning for Kandy, Sri Lanka's Cultural Capital. On the way visit the Spice Garden in Matale. Since ancient trading days, Sri Lanka has been world-renowned for its Quality Spices. In the 16th century Ceylon, as it was then known, was discovered by the Portuguese who soon began trading in cinnamon and other spices. The Dutch and British followed, bringing with them their own history and influences, forming a strong Western presence that created a history of food expressed with spices that can be tasted in the dishes today. Spices are an essential element of the cuisine of Sri Lanka and the Ayurvedic tradition and a visit to a garden specializes in the cultivation of these substances and is an excellent way for purposes of new uses of certain ingredients that perhaps they knew well. Find cinnamon, cloves, nutmeg, vanilla, cardamom, and black pepper, to name a few. Visitors can buy the products in their natural state or in the form of oils and potions that are used by Ayurvedic medicine.

Proceed to Kandy. Visit the Temple of the Tooth Relic in Kandy. Sri Dalada Maligawa in Kandy is the most prominent and sacred Buddhist shrine in Sri Lanka, even in the world. The relic of the tooth is kept in a two-story inner shrine fronted by two large elephant tusks. The relic rests on a solid gold lotus flower, encased in jeweled caskets that sit on a throne. The temple is joined by the Pattiripuwā (Octagon) tower, built in 1803, which was originally a prison but now houses a collection of palm-leaf manuscripts. The king's palace is also in the temple compound.

Visit the Royal Botanical Gardens. Just outside the Kandy city limits lies this little paradise with thousands of tropical and subtropical plants. Created by the British in the 19th century, the Peradeniya Botanical Garden is still considered one of the most beautiful in Asia. you can find over 4000 flowers, shrubs, medicinal plants, and trees from all tropical regions of the world. The 60 hectares of gardens, forests, and houses can be explored in countless ways on foot or in oxen-drawn carriages.

thatched roofs of 'Illuk' straw that adds to their rustic beauty. The exquisite countryside, breathtaking views, and exciting nature trails will assure you of a memorable holiday at the most breathtaking Ella hotel.

The resort is made up of several beautifully crafted chalets tucked within the leveled landscape of the plantation, making it one of the most sought-after honeymoon hotels in Sri Lanka.
